Raila plays safe on judges row

HOT AND COLD ODM leader falls short of asking Uhuru to appoint the six judges nominated by the JSC, only asking the president to table the evidence against them. PAGE 4

► Then

This decision has thrown the country into a constitutional crisis and may be the beginning of the end in the implementation of the reform agenda if not reversed.”

Raila opposing the 2011 unilateral decision by former President Kibaki to nominate a CJ without recourse to law.

► Now

“In the current stand-off over the refusal by the President to appoint six out of the 41 judges nominated by the Judicial Service Commission for superior courts, I challenge the Executive to share with the Judiciary and the public the concerns and evidence that led to the rejection of the six.”

Mt Kenya: We will field our own for State House race

Governors, current and former MPs meet in Nyeri and resolve to have their own presidential candidate in next year's elections, as Speaker Muturi and Governor Kiraitu separately rally regional teachers and leaders for a bigger stake in the contest.
